Hassan, 17th September 24.

The Chief Secretary to Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
B a n g a l o r e.

Sir,

The other day I was told in the Government Central Book Depot at the Fort in Bangalore that Rs.2/- had been fixed as the price for the copy of the Book containing Local Boards Regulation and Rules thereunder. I was surprised that the Superintendent, Government Press, had so instfucted the Curator, fixing the price so high as Rs.2/-. The Regulation itself and the several Government Proceedings themselves if separately purchased do not cost more than annas ten or annas twelve, and the price of Rs.2/- merely because they are all stitched together and a thin paper given as cover seems to be very exhorbitant. I therefore beg to suggest that the price may be suitably lowered so as not to exceed the cost of the Regulation and Government Proceedings if separately bought and make the boKh available for use.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Member,
Legislative Council, Hassan.

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. G. 2812/ G. M. 1766-24, dated the 15th instant, I have the honour to state that as the number of copies printed is less, the price inevitably goes up The addition of overhead and other expenses and also of the percentage for commission for sale also helps to swell the selling price of the book. For these reasons the selling price of the book has worked out high. In view, however, of the representation made that the cost is prohibitive, it may be sold at R^{s} 1-8-0 per copy.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Superintendent.
